My Dear Sir,

I am directed to enclose a draft Memorandum which, if you see no objection to it, may be issued, and necessary action may kindly be caused to be taken in regard to (1) Sir Kantaraj Urs' pension, (2) the orderlies (number etc., to be the same as in the case of Sir M.Visvesvaraya).

2. It is only as a very special case that His Highness has been pleased to allow Sir Kantaraj Urs to have precedence of the Dewan at ceremonial functions in the Palace, but he desires it to be clearly understood that this special honour is to be regarded as purely personal to Sir Kantaraj Urs and not as forming a precedent, applicable in the case of future retired Dewans.

Yours sincerely,
Sd/- Mirza M. Ismail.
